This Amendment No. 13 to Schedule 13D ("Amendment No. 13") amends and supplements the Schedule 13D filed by Ahmed Hussein as most recently amended and supplemented by Amendment No.12 to the Schedule 13D filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on June 18, 2012 ("Amendment No. 12").

Item 1. SECURITY AND ISSUER

This Amendment No. 13 relates to the common stock, par value $0.01 per share (the "QSI Common Stock" or the "Shares"), of Quality Systems, Inc., a California corporation (the "Issuer"). The Issuer's principal executive offices are located at 18111 Von Karman Avenue, Suite 700, Irvine, California 92612.

Item 2. IDENTITY AND BACKGROUND

(a) – (c) Mr. Hussein's address is 630 Fifth Avenue, Suite 2258, New York, New York 10111-0100. He is chairman of the board of National Investment Company, Cairo, Egypt, which he founded in 1996. Mr. Hussein's principal occupation is managing investments for himself and his family.

(d) Mr. Hussein has not been convicted in a criminal proceeding (excluding traffic violations or similar misdemeanors) during the last five years.

(e) Mr. Hussein, during the last five years, has not been party to a civil proceeding of a judicial or administrative body of competent jurisdiction and as a result of such proceeding was or is subject to a judgment, decree or final order enjoining future violations of, or prohibiting or mandating activities subject to, federal or state securities laws or finding any violation with respect to such laws.

(f) Mr. Hussein has dual citizenship in Egypt and the United States of America.

Item 3. SOURCE AND AMOUNT OF FUNDS OR OTHER CONSIDERATION

The source of funds for Mr. Hussein's acquisition of Shares was his personal funds in the total amount of approximately $8 million. All or part of the Shares held by Mr. Hussein may from time to time be pledged with one or more banking institutions or brokerage firms as collateral for loans made by such entities to Mr. Hussein. Such loans generally bear interest at a rate based on the broker's call rate from time to time in effect. Such indebtedness, if any, may be refinanced with other banks or broker-dealers.

Item 4. PURPOSE OF TRANSACTION

Mr. Hussein is filing this Amendment No. 13 to report the sale of Shares of QSI Common Stock and to report on recent events relating to his proxy contest with the Issuer. Despite the sale of Shares, Mr. Hussein will have sole voting power over 9,334,700 Shares through the date of the Issuer's annual meeting of shareholders to be held on August 16, 2012 (the "2012 Annual Meeting"), and any postponement or adjournment thereof.

On June 15, 2012, Mr. Hussein delivered a letter to the Issuer nominating Murray F. Brennan, M.D., Patrick B. Cline, Thomas R. DiBenedetto, Ian A. Gordon, Ahmed D. Hussein, Lieutenant General (Ret) John "Mike" McDuffie and John "Jack" Mueller (together, the "Nominees"), as set forth therein, for election to the Issuer's Board of Directors (the "Board") at the 2012 Annual Meeting.

On June 18, 2012, Mr. Hussein issued a press release announcing his nomination of the Nominees for election to the Board at the 2012 Annual Meeting, a copy of which is attached to Amendment No. 12 as Exhibit 99.1.

Beginning July 20, 2012, Mr. Hussein furnished proxy materials to the Issuer's shareholders seeking election of his Nominees.

On July 30, 2012, Mr. Hussein issued a press release announcing the Nominees' unanimous decision to choose Lieutenant General (Ret) Mike McDuffie as the non-executive chairman of the Board, if the Nominee's slate constitutes a majority of the Board following the 2012 Annual Meeting. A copy of the press release filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") on July 30, 2012, is attached as Exhibit 5.

As long as Mr. Hussein owns enough shares in the Issuer he has the right under California law to be represented on the Board. Yet the Issuer's Chairman and its Board have succeeded completely in marginalizing Mr. Hussein's ability to participate in the Board's function.

The Issuer claims that it did not know about Mr. Hussein's margin accounts until recently. This is clearly false, as certain of Mr. Hussein's brokers contacted the Issuer's lawyers prior to establishing margin accounts and well before the Board adopted its insider trading policy in July 2011. In addition, Mr. Hussein stated that his Shares were held in accounts with margin capabilities in his proxy statement in 2008, as well as in subsequent filings with the SEC.

Following the substantial loss that Mr. Hussein (as well as other shareholders) suffered as a result of the drop in the Issuer's share price by almost 70% since late September 2011, the Board is trying to divert the attention of the shareholders from the Issuer's poor financial performance by attacking Mr. Hussein for exercising his economic and legal rights. A copy of the press release that was filed with the SEC on July 27, 2012, noting the 33% drop in stock price on the previous day and responding to the Issuer's attacks, is attached as Exhibit 6.

The Issuer has been engaged in a campaign of irrationally and unjustly excoriating Mr. Hussein for recent sales of his Shares forced by the precipitous drop in the Issuer's share price. Mr. Hussein and his lawyers have communicated to the Board repeatedly that it has absolutely no right to try to enforce any restrictions on Mr. Hussein and his Shares that are not required by law, and that the Issuer has absolutely no way to enforce. A copy of a letter to the Issuer's general counsel from Mr. Hussein's lawyers dated August 1, 2011, is attached as Exhibit 7. The Issuer has failed to respond to these objections.

Mr. Hussein reserves all his rights to defend himself against those who are making irresponsible attacks on his motives and integrity in an attempt to blacken his name.

In connection with the 2012 Annual Meeting, Mr. Hussein and Mr. Cline entered into a letter agreement pursuant to which Mr. Hussein has agreed to indemnify Mr. Cline against claims arising from the solicitation of proxies from the Issuer's shareholders in connection with the 2012 Annual Meeting and any related transactions.

Dr. Brennan owns 6,000 Shares, 4,000 of which are restricted. Mr. Hussein disclaims being a member of a group with Dr. Brennan and each of the other Nominees as a result of Mr. Hussein's nomination of the Nominees for election to the Board at the 2012 Annual Meeting, their efforts to solicit proxies or otherwise.

Mr. Hussein holds the Common Stock for investment. Mr. Hussein does not have any present plan or proposal that would relate to or result in any of the matters set forth in subparagraphs (a) - (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D, except as set forth herein. Mr. Hussein intends to review his investment in the Issuer on a continuing basis and engage in discussions with management, the board and other shareholders of the Issuer, as well as other relevant parties, concerning the business, operations, governance, management, strategy and future plans of the Issuer. Depending on various factors including, without limitation, the Issuer's financial performance and strategic direction, actions taken by the Issuer's board, other investment opportunities available to Mr. Hussein, the price levels of the Common Stock, conditions in the securities markets and general economic and industry conditions, future developments at the Issuer, and his views of the manner in which the Issuer is governed in the future, Mr. Hussein may in the future take such actions with respect to his investment in the Issuer as he deems appropriate including, without limitation:

- continuing to hold his shares of Common Stock for investment;
- purchasing additional shares;
- selling some or all of his shares, including potential sales by his brokers as a result of margin calls or otherwise pursuant to agreements relating to his brokerage accounts;
- pledging some or all of his shares as collateral for loans or margin accounts;
- making proposals to the Issuer concerning changes to the capitalization, ownership structure or operations of the Issuer;
- commencing legal proceedings against certain directors of the Issuer;
- continuing to call on the present independent directors of the Issuer to investigate the Chairman's independence, independently of the Chairman;
- pursuing discussions with other shareholders and third parties regarding alternatives for corporate governance involving the Issuer or to maximize shareholder value therein;
- seeking to change the composition of and/or seek further representation on the board and solicit proxies or written consents from other shareholders of the Issuer;
- resigning as a director of the Issuer; or
- changing his intention with respect to any and all matters referred to in this Item 4.

Item 5. INTEREST IN SECURITIES OF THE ISSUER

The percentages used in this filing are calculated based on the number of Shares of Common Stock, 59,342,817, reported as the number of outstanding Shares as of June 18, 2012, in the Issuer's Definitive Proxy Statement filed with the SEC on July 13, 2012. Mr. Hussein will have sole voting power over 9,334,700 Shares through the date of the 2012 Annual Meeting and any postponement or adjournment thereof.

- (a) Aggregate number of shares beneficially owned: 9,334,700

Percentage: 15.7%

- (b) 1. Sole power to vote or to direct vote: 9,334,700
 2. Shared power to vote or to direct vote: 0

ANNOUNCES SLATE'S CHOICE FOR NON-EXECUTIVE BOARD CHAIR

Calls on Shareholders to Vote the GOLD Proxy Card

New York, NY – July 30, 2012 – Below is a letter from Ahmed D. Hussein to his fellow shareholders of Quality Systems, Inc. (NASDAQ: QSII):

Dear fellow shareholders:

Despite my significant share ownership, the current board at Quality Systems does not allow me to participate in any meaningful fashion in overseeing my investment in the company and seeks to interfere with my ownership rights without any right or power to do so. The company and its lawyers refuse to respond to my letters and those of my counsel.

The company's recent communications attempt to divert your attention from the miserable financial performance of the company by making irresponsible attacks on my motives and integrity. I have warned the shareholders repeatedly about the potential for poor financial results. The performance of the company has substantially damaged my financial interest as well as the financial interest of other shareholders.

I asked my nominees, who are Murray F. Brennan, M.D., Patrick B. Cline, Thomas R. DiBenedetto, Ian A. Gordon, Lieutenant General (Ret) John "Mike" McDuffie, John "Jack" Mueller, and myself, to choose a non-executive chairman of the board, if our slate constitutes a majority of the board following the annual shareholders' meeting. Our unanimous decision was to choose Lieutenant General (Ret) Mike McDuffie.

Please read the definitive proxy statement and other materials posted at www.abetterqsii.com and support the outstanding slate of nominees I have nominated for election at Quality Systems' annual shareholders' meeting on August 16, 2012. Then call AST Phoenix Advisors at (800) 581-4729 for information on how to vote the GOLD proxy card. If you have voted the white proxy card, you can revoke it by voting and returning the GOLD proxy card TODAY.

Sincerely,

Ahmed D. Hussein

NOTES THURSDAY'S 33% DROP IN QUALITY SYSTEMS' STOCK PRICE

Urges Shareholders to Vote the GOLD Proxy Card

New York, NY – July 27, 2012 – Ahmed D. Hussein expressed solidarity with fellow shareholders of Quality Systems, Inc. (the "Company") (NASDAQ: QSII), upon the precipitous decline in the Company's stock price amid fears that Thursday's announcement of quarterly earnings 25% below analyst estimates is a harbinger of future weakness in demand for its software products. By contrast, competitors athenahealth, Inc. and Cerner Corporation both increased their estimates for 2012 revenues and net income. Mr. Hussein stated, "My concerns regarding the Company's prospects and position in the industry propelled me to propose an alternate slate of accomplished businessmen for election as directors at the Company's upcoming annual shareholders' meeting. Recent events demonstrate that my concerns were warranted."

On February 24 of this year, Steven Plochocki, the Company's Chief Executive Officer, exercised options for 92,500 shares and sold all but 4,000 of them the same day for $43.99 per share, yielding a gain of more than $2,000,000. Five months later, as the Motley Fool reported yesterday, "CEO Steven Plochocki no doubt unsettled investors further. Though Plochocki noted confidence in the company's 'future performance and prospects,' he said that the company is not reaffirming its previous full-year outlook due to 'evolving conditions affecting our industry and uncertainty in predicting future results.'"

Today, the Company posted on its website a statement censuring Mr. Hussein over margin calls precipitated by yesterday's steep price decline. Mr. Hussein responded, "On February 24, 2012, my investment in the Company had a market value in excess of $400 million. Today, it has fallen below $150 million. Just yesterday, the value of my investment in the Company fell by more than $70 million, an amount greater than the total balance of my debt worldwide. My entire motivation in this proxy contest has been to further the Company's success both for my own investment and the rest of the shareholders."

Mr. Hussein again invites shareholders to compare the Company's July 24th "rebuttal" to the detailed information included in his proxy materials and decide for themselves if the Company failed to respond to specific questions he posed regarding the events described.

The shareholders of Quality Systems face a clear choice: to continue with the status quo under the current board or to pursue a new direction by electing seven highly-qualified nominees who are, with the exception of Pat Cline, undisputedly independent, to the Board of Directors at the Company's upcoming 2012 Annual Shareholders' Meeting to be held on August 16, 2012. The nominees, who will answer to all the shareholders, are Murray F. Brennan, M.D., Patrick B. Cline, Thomas R. DiBenedetto, Ian A. Gordon, Lieutenant General (Ret) John "Mike" McDuffie, and John "Jack" Mueller, in addition to Mr. Hussein.

Shareholders in Quality Systems are encouraged to read the definitive proxy statement and shareholder letter posted at www.abetterqsii.com and call AST Phoenix Advisors at (800) 581-4729 for information on how to vote the GOLD proxy card.

Subject: Mr. Ahmed Hussein

Dear Mr. Sullivan:

In connection with the board meeting held on July 27, 2011, by Quality Systems, Inc. ("QSI"), Mr. Hussein reiterates his demand that his communication to the board (copy enclosed), opposing the proposed adoption of a revised insider trading policy that by its terms would impose additional restrictions on his ownership of QSI common stock, be included with the minutes of the meeting. Mr. Hussein regards it as totally unacceptable that the QSI board has refused to include Mr. Hussein's communication in the minutes or, even more seriously, to respond to it.

As Mr. Hussein has stated repeatedly, his percentage ownership in QSI is comparable to that of Sheldon Razin, yet his ability to participate in the governance of QSI's affairs is marginalized by Mr. Razin with the complacent acquiescence of the other QSI directors. His membership on the QSI board is attributable solely to his force of ownership under the cumulative voting provisions of the California statutes governing corporations. As virtually all significant issues facing the QSI board are considered and decided at the committee level in advance of each board meeting, the refusal by the QSI board to appoint Mr. Hussein to any of the board committees violates the spirit of the California law and denies him the respect and participation to which he should be entitled as a significant shareholder.

In particular, Mr. Hussein is outraged by the board's action in approving the revised insider trading policy, which he views as a form of harassment and an attempt to interfere with his legitimate property rights associated with his ownership of QSI common stock. As the company knows, as referenced in Mr. Hussein's 2008 proxy statement, he holds approximately 4.2 million QSI shares in brokerage accounts with margin capabilities. The policy's prohibition on holding QSI shares in a margin account infringes on Mr. Hussein's individual rights with respect to his economic interest in his QSI shares.

Mr. Hussein has asked me to advise you that he refuses to abide by restrictions in the insider trading policy that are not mandated by or that go beyond the requirements of the federal and state securities laws, including regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and the listing rules of The Nasdaq Stock Market ("Nasdaq"), applicable to public companies, directors of such companies, and persons trading in the U.S. securities markets. For example, he will not give QSI advance notice of his planned transactions in QSI shares. He will, however, comply with all requirements of the securities laws and of rules and regulations of the SEC and Nasdaq, in consultation with counsel knowledgeable in such requirements, before undertaking any transactions or other actions relating to his ownership of QSI securities.

In the event that QSI publicly discloses the adoption of the revised insider trading policy, Mr. Hussein demands that such disclosure include a statement that he opposed adoption of the policy and has informed QSI that he will not comply with requirements imposed by the policy that exceed those of the federal and state securities laws, SEC regulations and Nasdaq listing rules.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Mary Ann Frantz
